Earn Starpoints, Complimentary Wi-Fi

The Nines is Portland's high-style hotel. The NBA crowd and the international urbane love it.

Located inside the Meier & Frank Building (once home to the landmark department store), The Nines resides atop a now five-story Macy's in the heart of downtown just steps away from Pioneer Square, the MAX light rail and the Pearl District's bevy of boutiques and restaurants.

In true Portland style, a lending library with more than 3,000 books (the result of a special loaning program with Powell's) is available to guests. If the skies are clear, head to the top floor to Departure Restaurant + Lounge and sip a cocktail while overlooking the city. In the summer, the bar is busy with after-work parties and first-daters trying their best to impress.

ACE HOTEL PORTLAND

acehotel.com/portland

1022 SW Stark Street
Portland, OR 97205
503.228.2277

Hipster and highly stylized, this hotel offers DJ setup rentals for your room. Plus, it's above two popular downtown eateries, including one of the best coffee bars in town.

---

Ace Hotel, built in 1912, occupies an entire city block and borders the Pearl District. Each of the 79 rooms is unique, featuring vintage furniture, original claw foot tubs, custom Ace Hotel Pendleton blankets, and contemporary graphic wall art. Sixty-eight of the rooms have private baths and the suites can accommodate up to four people. Three rooms have bunk beds and shared baths.

Amenities include a business center, reading library, magazine rack, restaurant and bar, Stumptown coffee, Jorg & Olif Rental Bikes, ATM, photo booth, ice machines, safety deposit boxes, vending machines, complimentary wireless internet and mini bar.

Note: Portland had an Ace Hotel, a Seattle original, years before New York, Palm Springs or LA. It's hipster and won't let you forget it.

WOODLARK

woodlarkhotel.com

813 SW Alder Street
Portland, OR 97205
503.548.2559

A Provenance Hotel
Pets are welcome

Style, food, coffee and an amazing bar – this place is at the top of the new Portland hotel scene.

---

When the regional hotel chain Provenance Hotels stepped up to remodel this historic hotel, Portlanders' hearts fluttered. This stylish, modern re-do is now one of the city's gems. History meets accessible luxury. From the rich color palette to the unforgettable cocktails at Abigail Hall (named after Oregon suffragist Abigail Scott Duniway), Woodlark will win your love.

The pros: Chef Doug Adams. Sure he was on bravo's Top Chef, but his restaurant Bullard and the breakfast kolaches at Good Coffee are even more impressive.

The cons: The area is noisy, so ask for a quiet room if you're a light sleeper.

Complimentary Wi-Fi

Situated in the heart of downtown Portland, the Hotel Lucia offers a unique alternative to the typical Portland hotel experience. Hotel amenities include 24-hour room service and free access to the business, Wi-Fi and fitness centers.

The best thing? The Imperial restaurant on the ground floor. Created by legendary chef Vitaly Paley, the local hot spot uses seasonal, organic ingredients (duh, this IS Portland) paired with Oregon game and shellfish. Hint: Get the fries no matter what.

Note: The Hotel Vintage is next door.

The Hotel deLuxe marries Ginger's retro glamour with Mary Ann's accessibility.

The most distinct of Portland hotels, deLuxe pays homage to Hollywood's golden era hotels with the smile of an ingénue and the swagger of a leading man.

Seek out The Driftwood Lounge, a gem of a hotel bar often filled with Portlanders looking for stylish ambience and a good martini sans hipsters. In addition, there is a full service restaurant and over 1,700 square feet of conference space including the Screening Room.

Benefits: 10% off best available rate, late check-out, complimentary Wi-Fi, access to book groups and meetings online 24/7 through Kimpton Instant Meeting

The Hotel Monaco Portland is located in the downtown core. You can drink free coffee and tea in the lobby every morning and wine every evening by the fireplace. The hotel has a traditional business center, conference rooms, a 24-hour fitness center, plus an Aveda day spa. This place offers no surprises.

The pros: It's a Kimpton Hotel.

The cons: The hotel sits on the bus mall, so some rooms can be louder than others.

Built in 1909 during the prosperous days following the Lewis and Clark Exposition, this hotel was recently renovated in lush colors and sexy gold accents. Featuring the famous Jake's Grill and the new Jackknife Lounge, the hotel also offers complimentary morning coffee, 24-hour room service and other customary amenities. A pretty swanky Starbucks is located just off the lobby.

Benefits: 10% off best available rate, late check-out, complimentary Wi-Fi, access to book groups and meetings online 24/7 through Kimpton Instant Meeting

A Kimpton Hotel - The Hotel Vintage never misses. From the free loaner bikes to the local wine happy hour, you won't be disappointed, but you also won't be surprised. Portlanders have stayed here since 1892 (it was previously the Imperial Hotel and The Plaza Hotel) for special events, weddings or a weekend away from the kids. The hotel is also an official Portland Historic Landmark and on the National Register of Historic Places.

Note: The Hotel Lucia is next door.

HOTEL EASTLUND

hoteleastlund.com

1021 NE Grand Ave.
Portland, Oregon 97232
503.235.2100

Portland's newest hotel on the eastside offers amazing views of the Rose City.

---

The Eastlund is one of Portland's newest hotels with 168 rooms, an on-site bakery (Citizen Baker) and a rooftop restaurant. Altabira City Tavern has 16 local beers on tap and serves spirits and wines from local makers. When the weather is warm, enjoy a pint on the open patio overlooking the Convention Center, the Willamette River and downtown Portland. The hotel is in a transitional part of east Portland (Eastlund?), but it's located on the Street Car and MAX lines, so everything is easily accessible including the airport and downtown.

The pros: It's close enough to walk to HouseSpecial or to a Blazers' game.

The cons: Some rooms overlook a Denny's. Two of the city's major streets embrace the hotel like a traffic sandwich during the work week.

Formerly a Westin Hotel, Dossier is right downtown near food carts, museums and traffic.

Recently updated and under new ownership, Dossier is a simple, standard hotel with local touches. For example, you can order famed Salt & Straw ice cream delivered to your room.

One of the biggest local draws to the hotel is the new Italian restaurant, Rosa Rosa, inspired by legendary chef Vitaly Paley. Italian treats and memorable cocktails are worth the visit.

Insider tip: The quietest rooms (out of the 250) are the corner rooms ending in "04."

Marriott Rewards Program
Autograph Collection Hotel
Pets are welcome

Known as the Oregon Pioneer Building, this hotel is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

---

Built in 1910, this building has gone through more identity changes than a mobster in protective custody. Originally known as the Railway Exchange Building, the structure was painted gold in the 1960s as part of a revitalization project. Now, it's a new stylized boutique hotel in the Marriott family.

Insider tip: Portland's oldest restaurant, Huber's, is located at street level and serves traditional turkey dinners and Spanish coffees all year round.

With 267 rooms, including a Presidential Suite, The Porter is big. Located near Portland's cultural venues – Keller Auditorium, Keller Fountain Park and Tom McCall Waterfront Park – the hotel stands next to the KOIN Center, which is the third tallest building in the city and a prime example of 1980's architecture. The hotel's Terrane Italian Kitchen & Bar serves classic treats to the after-work and theater crowds.

The pros: The hotel has a luxurious indoor pool and a take-out pizza window.

The cons: After 6 PM, this part of town goes quiet.

Staying at The Heathman is like using your best wedding china to serve high tea while listening to jazz.

---

The elegant Heathman Hotel is located in the heart of Portland's cultural and shopping district. You can peruse books signed by authors who have visited the hotel in the stately mezzanine library. Take advantage of the on-site gym or treat yourself to a traditional High Tea. In the evening the cool jazz flows from the lobby lounge. This is old school.

Read Fifty Shades of Grey? This is the hotel in the book and The Heathman is cashing in on the pop culture spotlight. In fact, try a Fifty Shades of Gin cocktail in the seductive hotel bar. Yep, the gin is locally distilled.

THE BENSON

bensohotel.com

309 Southwest Broadway
Portland, OR 97205
503.228.2000

Coast Hotels Rewards Program

Your parents and grandparents would love to stay at The Benson. It's historic.

A historic landmark building located in the heart of downtown Portland built in 1912. The Benson's resident fine dining eatery, El Gaucho, is one of the best steak houses/cigar bars in Portland. For something a little less formal, try the classic grand lobby bar, sit with your favorite cocktail and enjoy frequent live jazz performances.

Tip: If you want to add an amazing view to your stay, request a corner room on the east side. The views of Mt. Hood and Mt. St. Helens can't be beat!

The cons: Wedding receptions are commonly hosted here, so the lobby can be bustling with all things bridal on weekends.

JUPITER HOTEL

jupiterhotel.com

800 East Burnside
Portland, OR 97214
503.230.9200

The closest hotel to the studio is "a mid-century, renovated motor inn-turned-boutique hotel" for partiers.

---

Once a Travelodge on the rough side of East Burnside, this renovated hotel was built around one of Portland's best music venues, The Doug Fir Lounge. Each room has pop-inspired motifs that reflect the party nature of the joint and confirm that this is not a peaceful place for a good night's sleep. Choose a regular room, a suite or even a retreat with a kitchenette.

The cons: The hotel is loud and filled with party people keeping it going even after the music stops.

The pros: Four Portland food landmarks – Voodoo Doughnuts, Canard, Bunk Sandwiches and Sizzle Pie – are easily walkable. Plus condoms are free.

Note: The new Jupiter Next is next door.

Modern, simple and newly built, NEXT is the newest addition to the Jupiter Hotel scene.

Newly opened, this eastside gem is across the street from the Jupiter Hotel and one of Portland's best music venues, The Doug Fir Lounge. With 67 rooms, a great view of Portland, easy access to our studio and located to close to some sweet Portland must-sees, NEXT is a solid choice for visitors. Dogs are allowed and Portland's award-winning bike share rent rack is right out the front door.

The cons: The hotel is on a busy main street, Burnside, so environmental noise is inevitable.

The pros: You can sip on a Cap'n Crunch Bourbon Cocktail at Hey Love, the hotel's shiny new watering hole.

Note: The Jupiter is next door.

Hilton Honors
Valet: $46, no self-parking
Pets are welcome

Benefits: Save up to 20% off the hotel's Best Available Rate by booking in advance.

Located in the Pearl District, this hotel is near almost everything in downtown.

A central location, this comfortable refuge is near a few well-known fine arts galleries, which influenced the feeling of the hotel's interior. The Elizabeth Leach Gallery, PDX Contemporary Art, Upfor Gallery, Blackfish Gallery and J. Pepin Art Gallery are hot stops during First Thursday, a monthly artwalk. The 10-story, 153-room hotel opened in spring of 2018 and reflects a more contemporary decor than usually found in a standard Hilton.

The pros: The hotel's restaurant has a happy hour in its hotel restaurant with $5 kale salads, $4 roasted cauliflower and $7 signature cocktails. Happy hour is from 4 to 6 PM.

The cons: Parking is expensive since street parking is metered and self-parking is not offered. This part of town also has a large homeless population camping on streets.

Located in Old Town Chinatown, this hotel is designed to be totally Instagrammable.

One of Portland's newest hotels, The Hoxton ("The Hox") is located in part of town that has potential, but is near The Portland Rescue Mission. If you're a light sleeper, this hotel is not for you. Between busy Burnside Street and sidewalk homeless camps, the noise level is significant. Maybe the Instagram likes are worth it?

On the plus side, this hotel has three restaurant/bars. La Neta, from the owners of Ava Gene's and Tusk, boasts some of the best fancy Mexican food in Portland. A rooftop bar and a basement "speakeasy" round out the trio. The decor is comfortable and reflects Portland's style with lots of wood, luxurious fabrics and warm lighting.

The pros: You can easily walk to HouseSpecial across the beautiful Burnside Bridge.

The cons: Portland's largest homeless shelter is two blocks away.
